Raymond Fire & Rescue Department Visits Schools

With the start of National Fire Prevention week, students of the Town of Raymond received an education of fire safety and prevention. Members of the Raymond Fire & Rescue Department stopped by Raymond Elementary and Jordan Small School to speak to the children. The members giving this instruction were Assistant Chief Chris Champagne, Captain Dwayne Buzzell, Lieutenant Shawn Hebert, Fire Fighters Josh Stevens and Dave Sheppard.

The children received instruction on what to do in case of a fire or medical emergency in their home. The day started by watching a video designed for the student's age group, and then followed by a discussion of practice and procedures for their safety as well as the safety for their family members. Topics were related to how fast a fire could spread, now dangerous a fire could be, safety items in the house, and what they should do if there were a fire or emergency in their home.

Members of the Raymond Fire & Rescue Department went over the safety of smoke and carbon monoxide detectors in the home and reminded the students that time is of the essence for evacuation. When they hear a detector sounding get out as fast as possible using the best route for safety. Students were instructed on how to feel doors before opening them to protect themselves, and other methods of getting out or protecting themselves.

At the conclusion of the class students received a tour of the fire apparatus brought to the school by the Department, and were given a project to complete for their teachers. Each student was asked to develop an escape plan for their home and to have their parent(s) check it over. The day concluded with a fire drill at the schools which was observed by the Department members. Everyone would be proud of the way the teachers, staff, and children followed emergency procedures.

We of the Raymond Fire & Rescue Department value this time with the children as a chance to express our concerns for safety for all residents of the Town. We would like to remind all residents to practice fire safety not just at this time of year but all the time. In this week of national awareness, we would like to remind all to change the batteries in their detectors, clean the detectors by vacuuming them out, and checking your fire extinguishers for readiness. Only you can help protect yourself and family in the safety of fire prevention.

Middle School Planning At Jordan-Small School By: Christian Elkington

The staff of Jordan-Small School is now deep into the development of our rough draft middle school model. The development process will take some time as we collect more research, look at more successful practices from other schools, and receive and review parental and community input. The ideas shared here are not necessarily etched in stone! We believe strongly that they will support our students continued growth as young adults! We also know that we are not "all knowing", and that your feedback and perspective is a vital piece in our school's development!

On Thursday, October 26th, the first of our Middle School Forums was held. At this meeting we shared some of the reasoning, philosophy and research behind our staff's planning. Both parents and community members were given opportunities to comment and ask questions. Feedback was collected and will be used as our rough draft is revised. The following topics were discussed:

1) Instructional Approaches

- a.) Looping Teams — 2 to 3 teacher grade level teams teaching students for 2 years (5-6, 7-8).
- b.) Integrative Unit Development — subjects are not taught in isolation alone, but are also taught across the curriculum.
- c.) Multiple Intelligences Focus — student strengths are emphasized to both develop greater learning and understanding in areas of strength and to also support learning in less skilled areas.
- d.) Advisor Groupings — matching up small groups of students (8 to 10) with professional staff in multi-age Advisor groupings. Students will receive greater staff advocacy by building a 4-yr bond with their Advisor and Advisory Group.

2) Curriculum

- a.) School-wide writing rubrics — development of a 5/6 and 7/8 rubric to be used within all classes. Expectations and high standards for student writing will be clear for each student and all classes.
 - b.) FAST (Foundational Approaches to Science Teaching) — hands-on approaches to having students learn and use skills in practical applications.
 - c.) Foreign Language — all students will take either Spanish or French. 5th graders entering JSS will take 4 years.
 - d.) Media Services (Library/Computers) — will be integrated as tools within subject areas and not taught as separate subject classes. A skills' list and programming proficiency/mastery timeline will be developed for each grade level.
- 3) Integrated Electives — students in grades 5-8 will receive up to 100 minutes per week/per subject in Phy.Ed./Life Skills, Spanish/French, Art/Project Work, and General Music/Band/Chorus. Students will have 1 of 2 foreign language options and 1 of 3 music options.
- 4) Interscholastic/Extracurricular offerings
- a.) Athletics — students in grades 6/7

(2001-2002) will have opportunities to play for school teams in soccer, x-country, basketball, baseball, and softball.

- b.) Clubs — will be introduced for student involvement in Student Council, Drama, and a School Paper.
- c.) Intramurals — will continue to be offered.

5) Increased Staffing — teaching staff will need to be increased to support the addition of 7th grade students along with the upgrading of our Integrated Electives in Music, Art, Foreign Language, and Phy.Ed/Health. Guidance services will need to be increased to support student academic and social needs.

6) Schedule — keep the current daily schedule (8:40-3:25). Research shows students (at this age) are more successful learners later in the school day.

More discussions will continue at the next Middle School Forum on Thursday, November 9th from 6:30 – 8:00 P.M., in the JSS Cafeteria. Please mark this date down, as the key ingredient in developing a great school will be the involvement and commitment of both our students' parents and community members!

In closing let me congratulate our students for their very positive efforts as ambassadors from our school and community! Over the last month we have had several field trips leave Jordan-Small School with our students. At each destination our students have been complimented for their efforts! What more can we expect or say!

Letterboxing In England

By: Debbie Blanchard

Greetings from the United Kingdom! I've just returned from England to explore 'Letterboxing.' In spite of a historical fuel shortage, I was able to make my way from London to southwestern England to complete research for my Sabbatical project. I loved England-everyone there was wonderful and some of the kindest people I have ever met.

What is 'Letterboxing'? Letterboxing started about 150 years ago in the Dartmoor National Park area on the moors. The tradition carries on today. Hundreds of boxes are hidden all over the moors. Letterboxes can be ammunition tins, metal boxes or plastic Tupperware containers. To find them, one must follow a set of clues, usually put to verse, in order to discover the whereabouts of the hidden boxes. These boxes usually contain a visitor's book, a rubber stamp (particular to that location) and an inkpad. Hunters use the stamp to record the find in their own books and then mark the visitor's book with their own personal stamps.

The popularity of letterboxing has increased steadily. While I was staying in the village of Moretonhampstead, people came from all over the world to walk the moors and go letterboxing. I documented the five-mile trail that exists in Moretonhampstead. It led me into tea rooms, pubs, fields of sheep, over pig stiles, through bridle paths and up onto hillsides which provided panoramic views of the beautiful English countryside. At each of the 12 boxes, we were rewarded with a gorgeous stamp to record in our book. A word of warning though... Letterboxing as a hobby can be very addictive and once started, people have been known to spend every spare moment in search of 'that elusive box'!

We hope to adapt this popular English pastime to the five history trails, which have been developed over the last four years in Raymond. Over fifty communities along the Connecticut River in N.H. and Vermont have designed a version for their area called 'Valley Quest'. I have to admit that the American version is a lot easier to walk and a bit more user-friendly than the English versions. In any event, we'd like to get started this spring and produce perhaps six boxes this year for our own 'Letterboxing Trail'. We welcome participation from anyone and everyone; this could include Girl Scout/Boy Scout groups, Historical Societies, classrooms, local businesses or interested citizens of the Sebago Lake area. I would be happy to share information about Letterboxing by phone, e-mail or to make a presentation to a group. (e-mail: djblanch@maine.rr.com or contact me through Raymond Elementary School)

Stay tuned for future updates about this exciting adventure!

Raymond Rec. Basketball Registration

With the leaves falling outside, that can only mean it's time for Basketballs to start flying inside. After running a very successful program last year, John Hanley has decided to step down as director, but promises when he can to help out!

This years program will be run by David McGowan and Jeff Weeks. The program will be set up into the following three groups:

- 1st and 2nd Graders @ Raymond Elementary School.
- 3rd and 4th Graders @ Jordan Small School.
- 5th and 6th graders @ Jordan Small School.

A survey was sent out to the school inquiring about an interest in an all girls league. The enthusiasm seemed to be there, so depending on the numbers, there may be an all girls league.

Registration is Thursday November 9th from 6:30 to 8:00 P.M. at the Jordan Small School Gymnasium. The cost will be $20.00 per child payable by cash or check (made out to Raymond Rec.) Please remember if you wish to sign up for more than one program that evening- separate checks will be required for accounting purposes.

2001 Dog Tags Available

Dog licensing can now be done for 2001. If you have a dog over the age of 6 months, it should be licensed. We will need to see the dog's Rabies certificate and neutering certificate if it is spayed or castrated. The fee for a neutered dog is $4.00 and non-neutered $7.50. All dogs must be licensed by January 31, 2001 without incurring an extra charge.

Please understand that by having your dog licensed anyone finding your stray pet will be able to trace it to you thereby alleviating the possibility that it will go to a shelter. The money from your licensing also pays for stray animal care in the Town and State. It also supports the State Veterinarian and laboratory in Augusta.

Elementary Principal's Report For November

By: Norma Richard

It is hard to believe that the first quarter is nearly completed, and that we are already planning for first quarter parent/teacher conferences. These conferences are an opportunity for our Raymond Elementary School parents to ask questions, to clarify, and to improve their understanding of their child's behavior in class and at school. Conferences are also a good time to tell the teacher important things about their child.

The key to a successful conference parents and teachers agree, is two-way communication. As a parent, you know your child better than anyone else. You may want to share information with your child's teacher about favorite subjects, outside interests and hobbies, any medical or health needs, or things happening at home that may affect school work - moving, divorce, the birth of a child, the death of a relative, etc.

Before the conference, parents may want to make a list of things to ask their child's teacher. Questions to consider may include the following:

- How are my child's work habits? Is class time used well?
- Does my child read at the level you would expect for a student in this grade? Is my child able to do the math you would expect?
- Does my child get along well with others?
- What are your expectations for homework? Has my child missed any assignments?
- What can I do at home to help my child be more successful at school?

During the conference, please consider the following:

- Be on time. Please call the office at 655-8672 if you are going to be late or are unable make your scheduled conference. Teachers have many conferences and even a 5 minute delay can throw off their schedule.

- Ask to see your child's work. There is no better way to see how your child is progressing.
- Ask the teacher to explain anything you don't understand. Listen carefully as the teacher talks about your child's progress.
- Discuss with the teacher suggestions for improvement, and develop a plan with your child on how to carry out these suggestions.

Our conferences are scheduled for Friday, November 10. There is no school for students on that day. We look forward to meeting with parents to discuss their children's progress to date. Please call me at 655-8672 if you have any questions about first quarter conferences.

People care a lot about it.

Teachers there are great.
The students are always in bounds, and the buses are never late.

Kindergarten likes to play, while the older grades work all day.

The doors are always open, but the rules must never be broken.

The new school is so big

There are people in the school.

The new school has a bouncy gym.
It has a rubber floor.
When kids play soccer in the gym,
the kids start to score.

The stage is cool.
It's really big.
The curtains are velvety red.
I can't wait to put on a play.
