

I. LAND USE ORDINANCE, §300-10.3.10.a. – Extensions of Approvals and Permits
Type: Administrative, Clarification on language pertaining to permit extensions.

Current Ordinance:

Site plan and subdivision plan approvals shall expire and be void if the construction activity associated with the approval is not commenced within two years, and completed within four years, after the date of the site plan or subdivision plan approval unless the reviewing authority, at the time of approval, establishes a different completion schedule, but in no case shall the initial approval period exceed five years to commence and complete. A property owner/developer or their agent may request an extension of the period to commence and/or complete construction by submitting a request to the reviewing authority that issued the site plan or subdivision plan approval prior to the expiration of the initial term of approval. The reviewing authority may grant a one-time extension of up to two years to commence and/or complete construction. If construction is not commenced or completed within the approval time frame, the applicant must reapply for and receive approval prior to beginning or continuing construction.

Proposed Ordinance:

Site plan and subdivision plan approvals shall expire and be void if the construction activity associated with the approval is not commenced within two (2) years, and completed within four (4) years, after the date of the site plan or subdivision plan approval unless the reviewing authority, at the time of approval, establishes a different completion schedule, but in no case shall the initial approval period exceed five (5) years to commence and complete. A property owner/developer or their agent may request an extension of the period to commence and/or complete construction by submitting a request to the reviewing authority that issued the site plan or subdivision plan approval prior to the expiration of the initial term of approval. The reviewing authority may grant a one-time extension of up to two (2) years to commence and/or complete construction. Upon an extension being granted, the two (2) year extension shall begin upon the extension's approval date. If construction is not commenced or completed within the approval time frame, the applicant must reapply for and receive approval prior to beginning or continuing construction.
