(Following the Dowsing Presentation)

YOUR SUPPORT IS ALWAYS APPRECIATED

The Raymond/Casco Historical Society is now completing its 40th year of preserving the history of Raymond and Casco, Maine. Both towns which once were one known as one, which was "Raymondtown".

The big excitement of this past year is the publishing of a new book on the two towns which can be purchased from the society for $21.95 plus shipping. Please see page 15 of this newsletter if you are interested in purchasing this book.

Now gift giving goes two ways and we at the museum are always searching for items to add to the museum collection related to our two towns. Space does not allow us just to collect everything so our efforts are directed to just our two towns artifacts and research material. We have an awesome research department and have aided many in researching family histories.

Another great way to support your local historic museum is a donation to our endowment by sending a Check to RCHS, Box 1055, Raymond, Maine 04071. The endowment is established to pay out up to 5% of the invested returns annually to support the operation of this all volunteer endeavor. Each member of the society makes an annual contribution as well to insure its long term objective of financial security and survival.

Did You Know...

Jesse Holden built a saw mill on the Songo, in 1853. After his death the mill was sold to Dr. Weston, who operated it for a few years before having it torn down. The steam mill that began operation at this site in the 1900 was built by S. M. Mitchell, and later bought in 1905 by S. O. Hancock, who operated it in connection with a large lumbering business in the vicinity.

Role Change

Anne Miller (shown above) was born in Luton, Bedfordshire, England and came to America in the mid fifties with her United States Air Force husband Dave from Auburn, Maine. Her diverse background led her to teach ballet in Montana, coach a swim team in Syracuse, NY and produce her own tri-weekly radio show called "Tea for Two" in Montana and Norway, Maine.

In the seventies Anne served as Community Relations Director for Stephens memorial Hospital in Norway, Maine. She retired from the American Red Cross after serving for sixteen years as Field Representative covering Cumberland, Androscoggin and Oxford Counties.

Having been raised in England by parents who had a keen interest in history it was only natural that Anne loved hearing stories and seeing places from the past. She became involved in the Raymond -Casco Historical Society when she read in the paper that children had been vandalizing the 1849 "Friends School House" in Casco Village. She was asked to take over the care of the school house. Over the years she held an Open House at the school house during "Casco Days", and had local children dress in period clothing and show how a typical school day went. Anne hosted many former students and teachers in the school house. At that time she took the responsibility of media relations for the Raymond-Casco Historical Society.

Time marches on and Anne has decided that it is time to pass on her role as "Media Relations Correspondant" to a younger person who can better keep up with the latest and greatest computer gadgets that seem to get more complicated on a daily basis.

*"I am so glad to have Craig Sharkey take over as RCCHS Media Relations Correspondent. I know that he will do a great job and I wish him every success."
Anne Miller*

Craig moved from New Hampshire to Maine in 1995 where he worked at various printing companies including Spencer Press in Wells, Wise Business Forms in Portland and Spectrum Printing in Portland.

In 2009 Craig started his own business called "Sharkey Graphic Solutions" where he provides graphic design and printing from his home office in Casco.

While at the first local business table top show at the Casco Community Center a couple of years ago, Craig met Betty Glassford of RCCHS. After talking with Betty, Craig decided that joining the Raymond-Casco Historical Society sounded like an interesting idea. He thought that not only would this be an excellent way to meet some of the great local people in the area, but would be a great non-profit charity to take an active role in.

Since Craig's membership in RCCHS, helped with design and printing various items needed. As 2011 came to a close, Craig was approached by Ann Miller about the possibility of taking over the role of Media Relations Correspondent. After giving it more serious thought, Craig decided to accept the role and it was made official at our January 9th meeting.

"I am very happy to take over the role as Media Relations Correspondent from Ann Miller. Anne has been a true pleasure for me to work with, and has helped tremendously to make this a smooth and virtually seamless transition. Thanks Anne for all of your great work!" -Craig Sharkey

MEMBERS OF THE QUARTER

Frank & Betty McDermott

Betty McDermott's family has true roots here in the "Lakes Region". Her father's family were early settlers in Raymond and Casco, and her mother's family were early settlers in New Gloucester and helped build the Blockhouse there.

Betty was born in New Gloucester, and lived in Gray and South Portland where she attended school. She married Nick Pitarys in 1953 and they moved to Raymond with their three children in 1958. In 1965 Nick passed and her family wanted her to move back to Portland but she choose to remain in Raymond with her children. In 1968 Betty married Frank McDermott, the principal at Jordan - Small School. Frank was a widower with a son and they had a daughter. For the most part Betty was a "stay at home mom" but was also very active in organizations in town. She was the PTA president as well as the treasurer of the Library for 33 years. When her and Frank's children started the college route, she went to work at Windham High School as the attendance officer and activities treasurer for 15 years. When she retired, she served on the Raymond Appeals Board for 15 years and select person for 9 years, 2 as chair. During that time she set up the Committee to develop a "Veterans Memorial Park". Betty also served as a ballot clerk and election warden from 1984-2006.

In 1969/70 Ernest Night and his sister Carol Hartley asked Betty to help collect pictures of old Raymond to be used in Ernie's books "Raymond Then and Now" Volume 1 & 2 In 1971 Betty and her husband Frank became Charter Members of the Raymond-Casco Historical Society and she has served as Treasurer since 1994.

Betty is a Charter Member of the Raymond Lions Club and has served as its Treasurer since 1994. She received the "National Melvin Jones Lions Award" in 2007 of which she is humbly proud. She is also a life member of the "Descendants of the Mayflower" on both sides of her family as well as a member of the "Hawthorne Garden Club".

Aside from everything that Betty has done for RCHS, she has also shown true and faithful dedication to her community by her undying support, and positive attitude. Thank you Betty for all of your outstanding contributions, and to join with so many others to help make Raymond and Casco a wonderful place to live and work for ourselves and our children.

Frank grew up in Portland and graduated from Cheverus High School in the late 50's. He attended the University of Maine in Portland and graduated with a B. A. in Elementary Education from Gorham State College. He taught for 3 years in Falmouth and was a teaching principal there for 2 years. Frank came to Raymond in 1967 to teach 5, 6, 7 & 8 grade math and also to be principal. In 1975 he become Superintendent/Principal and served in that capacity until 1987. He was hired as the Assistant Superintendent MSAD #6 (Bonny Eagle) and filled that position until he was named Superintendent there in 1997. Frank also holds a MA in School Administration from the University of Maine at Gorham as well as a Certificate of Advanced Studies in Educational Administration from the University of Maine Orono. Upon retirement from public education Frank became Director of Education at The Elan School in Poland, ME. where he served until 2010.
